

The Art of Christian Freedom

Willamette Valley Men's Day
May 18, 2024

Our Speaker:

Joel Solliday currently serves as the interim preaching minister at the Pomeroy Christian Church in Washington state. He studied art and Bible at Pepperdine University and received an M. Div. from Fuller Theological Seminary. Joel recently retired after serving with the Lewiston Church of Christ for the last 12 years. Whether in ministry or between ministries, Joel has long found creative ways to integrate faith and the arts. His wife, Mary Ellen, hails from Texas. She is active in a quilting ministry that calls for a generous amount of time and creative energy.
